GET A TASTE OF THE LOCAL<sup>1</sup> LIFE AT SUPERMARKETS

想了解外國？
去一趟當地超市吧！

S: Sally

P: Peter

Sally and her friend, Peter, are in their hotel room in a foreign country. They are discussing what they will do later.

S: Hey, Peter. Since we have some free time later, how about we visit the local supermarket?

P: The supermarket? Why would we go there? We should be out sightseeing▼ or trying out local restaurants.

S: Think about it. The supermarket is where everyday<sup>2</sup> life happens. You get to see what sauces and spices<sup>3</sup> locals<sup>1</sup> use, the kinds of fish they sell, and all the fruits and vegetables you've never seen before. It's like experiencing their culture through food.

P: I see what you mean, but surely that could be done at restaurants, too.

S: There are cool snacks and treats<sup>4</sup> that aren't offered at restaurants, though. When I was in Amsterdam last year, I found some special butter cookies I hadn't seen anywhere else.

P: Then I suppose it's worth<sup>5</sup> checking out. It sounds like a good way to see locals just going about<sup>6</sup> their daily lives.

S: Exactly! It's like sightseeing without the tourists<sup>7</sup>. You can get a real feel for the country that way.

P: All right, you've convinced▼ me. Maybe I'll find something interesting to try or bring back for my family.

S: Great. Prepare to be amazed<sup>8</sup>!

Computer Store

來去電腦用品店走一遭

Notasha walks into a computer store.

A: Welcome to Andrew's Computers!

N: Hi, I'm looking for some accessories▼ for my PC▼.

A: You've come to the right place. What exactly are you looking for?

N: I need a webcam for work. I should also pick up<sup>1</sup> a new Wi-Fi router since I'm here.

A: OK. Webcams are over there. Do you want one with a built-in<sup>2</sup> microphone?

N: Good question. Maybe I should invest in▼ a high-quality one.

A: I can offer you some good options▼ at reasonable<sup>3</sup> prices.

N: Great. I also need a good router so my internet is stable<sup>4</sup> during work meetings.

A: Oh, I see. So you're putting together<sup>5</sup> a PC kit▼ for work, then?

N: Yes. I just bought a new PC with a huge monitor and speakers for online work meetings.

A: Check out this brand-new▼ router. It won't let you down<sup>6</sup>.

N: That looks fancy<sup>7</sup>.

A: It is, but it's worth it. It also comes with<sup>8</sup> a free USB.

N: Thanks for the suggestion▼, but I'd still like to look around a bit.

A: No problem. Just let me know when you're ready to check out.
